by deleting all language after the enacting clause and by substituting instead the following:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 67-5-212, is amended by deleting the last sentence of subsection (b)(3) and substituting the following:

Notwithstanding the date of application, the exemption shall take effect up to twenty-four (24) months earlier than the date of application, where the application was submitted due to relocation by the applicant of a use previously approved for exemption, or where denial of the application was the subject of a pending chancery court appeal on the effective date of this act. In no event may the exemption in such cases date back earlier than the date the property subject to the application began to be used for exempt purposes.

SECTION 2. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 67-5-212, is amended by adding a new subsection thereto, as follows:

( ) The general assembly finds that public television broadcasting serves a valid educational purpose so long as the broadcaster holds a non-commercial educational broadcast license issued by the Federal Communications Commission; and therefore, that property, or any part thereof, owned by a public television station which is an affiliate member of the public broadcasting network, and which holds such license, whether as a transferee, successor, or otherwise, of a license formerly held by the public school board of any county having a metropolitan form of government, shall be exempt from property taxation to the extent the property is used in a manner consistent with the license.
